

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—No.

Sri MULKA GOVINDA REDDY.—When such is the case, why should officials from the Revenue Department be imposed on the Sales-tax Department?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Because the officers of the Revenue Department have vast experience and can be posted to that department with advantage.

Sri MULKA GOVINDA REDDY.—Is it not a fact that revenue officials who used to be recruited to the Police Department have not been recruited to that department now-a-days?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Because there is a scheme.

Sri MULKA GOVINDA REDDY.—So also in the other department the officials of the Revenue Department are not wanted—is it not?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—They are wanted in every department.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Do the officers of the Sales-tax Department possess accountancy qualifications, such as Registered Accountant or G. D. A. or any equivalent examination?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—They have to pass the Accounts Code and also Accountancy examinations.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—My question is, whether there are any sales-tax officers at present in the service who possess qualifications of Public Accountant?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Excepting 2 or 3 revenue officers who are posted as sales-tax officers, the others have got the prescribed qualifications.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—I am not disputing the qualifications of those who have been appointed. I was only seeking to elicit from the Government information as to whether any of the sales-tax officers happen to possess qualifications of Public Accountant such as those in the Income-tax Department?

Mr. SPEAKER.—He will have to verify and reply.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—May I ask the Government whether they do not agree that the nature of the work to be performed by sales-tax officers and the other officials of the Sales-tax Department is quite analogous to the work to be performed by income-tax officials and other officials of that department?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—To some extent it is analogous.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Do not the Government consider it desirable as well as necessary to ensure that officers who have to administer the Department of Sales-tax should possess qualifications in Accountancy such as those possessed by income-tax officers?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—They have to pass the Accountants examination as prescribed in the rules. All the departmental officers before they are confirmed must pass that examination.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—May I bring it to the notice of the Government that the Accountancy examination prescribed by the Government is entirely inadequate for the purpose of administering the Sales-tax Department and that the Public Accountants qualification are alone sufficient and necessary?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—That suggestion will be considered.
